

Your Voice MATTERS!

If you're interested in engaging with new Montgomery County police officers in a conversation about issues facing our communities, please join us for an interactive dialogue about facilitating change.

As a participant you will:

- Be guided by an experienced facilitation team
- Converse with new officers in small-group breakout rooms
- Engage in conversations that matter about challenges facing your community
- Communicate what you wish officers knew about engaging with the community
- Have the opportunity to contribute additional comments anonymously using Padlet

Please register here to join the conversation.
